

History in the Digital Age

Saturday, 21 July 2018

Upstairs Function Room
The Ship Inn
 Corner of Stanley St & Sidon Streets, South Brisbane

- 1230 – 1300 Registration and Book Sales
- 1300 – 1310 Welcome by the President, Brisbane History Group
- 1310 – 1340 Chris Dawson – Creating historical websites: the aim, challenge and results
- 1340 – 1410 Neville Buch – The Mapping Brisbane project
- 1410 – 1440 Lee Butterworth – The Harry Gentle Resource Centre
- 1440 – 1510 Afternoon Tea
- 1510 – 1540 Magnus Eriksson – The Cloudland Interior, a Digital Reproduction
- 1540 – 1610 Thom Blake – Queensland history eresources - a new website
- 1610 – 1630 Wrap Up and Questions

Parking near the venue will be hard to find. It would be best to use public transport to either South Bank Train Station or the Mater Hill Bus Station, each about 100 metres away. Make a day of it and have some lunch at Southbank or at the Ship Inn before the seminar begins.

ENQUIRIES: Lisa Jones 0408 883 251

BOOKINGS ESSENTIAL

RSVP 15 July 2018

If booking by mail please complete and return this form to PO Box 2118, Brookside Centre, Qld 4053. Please make cheques payable to Brisbane History Group Inc. If you wish to book by email/EFT please use the contact form on the website or email bhg4000@brisbanehistorygroup.org.au. Include a contact phone number and names of those attending. Please also attach a copy of your bank payment slip with your booking. Account details for direct deposits: BSB: 734-000, A/C No: 093887, A/C Name: Brisbane History Group Inc. Alternatively you can book online through Tickebo which will apply a small surcharge.

Number attending:		Amount enclosed: $10.00 BHG members and students; $15.00 non-members
Name(s) attending:
		Phone:
Address:			